

NUMBER: H-1365

TITLE: "THE AISNE-MARNE OPERATIONS, JULY 18 TO AUGUST 6, 1918, MISCELLANEOUS SCENES".

FOOTAGE: 1,694 FEET - 2 REELS.

ORIGINAL NEGATIVE:

yes

MASTER POSITIVE:

yes

DUPLICATE NEGATIVE:

no

PROJECTION PRINTS:

SET NO.

MADE -

yes

1 Work Print.

*Code sheets checked
H.S.*

MOTION PICTURE DIVISION
neg:lan
SIG. C. PHOTO LAB.

Historical

CLASS ROUTINE

Instructions:

EDIT AND CONSOLIDATE THE FOLLOWING MATERIAL INTO ONE SUBJECT:

AEF 118	July 18-22, 1918	1755-1757	41 ft.
"	"	1771	15 ft.
AEF 119	July 20-21, 1918	1772, 1776, 1780, 1784-1788	502 ft.
AEF 121	July 20-22, 1918	1811-1812, 1817, 1826	144 ft.
AEF 133	July 27, 1918	1919	128 ft.
AEF 155	July 17-22, 1918	2173-2175	57 ft.
"	"	2191-2192	192 ft.
AEF 157	July 18-20, 1918	2203-2204	17 ft.
AEF 163	Aug. 3-4, 1918	2261-2262	132 ft.
"	"	2265-2266	158 ft.
AEF 172	Aug. 9-11, 1918	2362	102 ft.
AEF 174	July 11-19, 1918	2379, 2383, 2384, 2403-2405	187 ft.
AEF 177	Aug. 3-8, 1918	2462-2464, 2469, 2466-2467	74 ft.
AEF 183	Aug. 3-6, 1918	2566, 2563	80 ft.
AEF 219	Aug. 18-21, 1918	2996, 3006	77 ft.
AEF 243	Aug. 29-31, 1918	3347-3353	320-62 ft.
AEF 251	7-26 to 8-2-18	3384, 3399	98 ft.
AEF 179	Aug. 3-10, 1918	2474	38 ft.
AEF 188	Aug. 8-6, 1918	2565, 2567	78 ft.

MATCH NEGATIVE AND MAKE MASTER POSITIVE.

Disposition:

FOR HISTORICAL VAULTS.

Record of Material				Stock Record
Material	Footage	Cost Per Ft.	Cost Per Item		Initials
35mm	:	:	:	Picked up on S.R.Vou.No. _____
Neg.	:	:	:	Date _____
" Dupe	:	:	:
Total Neg.	 2208	Total Neg	 22.08	Place in Vault No. _____
Pos.Nit.	:	:	:	Date _____
" Safety	:	:	:	Cards to A.P.S. Date _____
" Dupe	:	:	:	Record filed in folder Date _____
Rec.	:	:	:	Checked, Date _____
	 2208	.01	22.08
Total Pos.	:	Total	:
	:	Pos Cost	:
Total Cost of Stock :				22.08

Edited by: Mr. Pfitzenmeier, 22.08

Finished picture footage Reel 1 - 838 ft; reel 2 - 876 ft. Total 1714 feet.

Subject: H-1565, "The Aisne-Marne Operations, July 18 to Aug. 6, 1918, Miscellaneous Scenes".

Date 5-22-56 Date Completed _____

Work Order No. 1252 8-17-36

Charles S. Stodter,
Capt. Sig. C.
O.I.C.

NEG MATCHED

IN REPLY
REFER TO

004.52-Historical.
(6-18-36)

WAR DEPARTMENT
meg:lmn
OFFICE OF THE CHIEF SIGNAL OFFICER
WASHINGTON

June 18, 1936.

MEMORANDUM FOR: O.I.C., Signal Corps Photo. Laboratory, Ft. Humphreys, D. C.

1. H-1365, "The Aisne-Marne Operations, July 18 to Aug. 6, 1918, Miscellaneous Scenes" on W.O. 1252 is O.K. Negative should be cut to match work print and master positive made as soon as convenient.

For the Chief Signal Officer.

M. E. Gillette,
Major, Signal Corps.

H-1365 -

MAY 2, 1938

REEL #1. Change footage in Reel #5.

REEL 2. O.K.

Parsons

"THE AISNE-MARNE OPERATIONS, JULY 18 TO AUGUST 6, 1918, MISCELLANEOUS SCENES".

Cut from A.E.F. 118, 119, 121, 133, 155, 157, 163, 172, 174, 177, 188, 219, 243, 251, 179.

1694 FEET

REEL I.

- | | | |
|-----------|--|---|
| Scene 1. | Near Soissons, Aisne, France, July 22, 1918 - German shelling the front line American positions on the Paris road, seven kilometers from Soissons. Shells can also be seen bursting in the distance four kilometers from Soissons. | (2191) 64 ft. ✓ |
| Scene 2. | This is what happened to a German machine gun nest and the gunners who guarded a hill overlooking a vast amount of open country near Sergy - when the Americans arrived. | (2265) 13 ft. ✓ |
| Scene 3. | Nesles, Aisne, France, August 4, 1918 - A field strewn with the bodies of dead Germans - where a battle was waged against the 165th and 167th Inf. Regts., 42nd Division, for possession of a hill. The Germans were driven many kilometers forward. | (2266) 86 ft. ✓ |
| Scene 4. | Lechelle, France, July 19, 1918, 10:30 P.M. - Scene of the third day's advance. The right side of the valley is in possession of the Germans and the left side in possession of the Americans. | (2405) 31 ft. ✓ |
| Scene 5. | The terrain of severe fighting where the 167th Inf., 42nd Div., finally drove the Germans back. | (2567) ⁸⁶ 112 ft. ✓ |
| Scene 6. | A German shell hitting near the Hotel de Ville in Chateau Thierry just after the evacuation of the Germans. | (1811) 13 ft. ✓ |
| Scene 7. | Coulonges, France, August 8, 1918 - Germans shelling a hillside near Hdqtrs., 3d Army Corps. These shells landed but only one exploded. | (2469) 9 ft. ✓ |
| Scene 8. | A destroyed British tank, small type. | (2404) 14 ft. ✓ |
| Scene 9. | A port hole in a small type British tank. | (2384) 13 ft. ✓ |
| Scene 10. | Near Charantigny, France, July 19, 1918, 11:00 A.M. - A destroyed German tank. | (2403) 13 ft. ✓ |
| Scene 11. | Chateau Thierry, France, August 4, 1918 - The bridge destroyed by the French and Americans to check the German offensive of July 15, 1918. Note the pontoon bridge in the background. | (2462) 19 ft. ✓ |
| Scene 12. | Jaulgonne, France, August 4, 1918 - Another view of the bridge destroyed by the French and Americans. | (2463) 6 ft. ✓ |
| Scene 13. | A temporary pontoon bridge across the River Marne built of captured German material. The 6th Engrs. are building a permanent bridge here. | (2464) 16 ft. ✓ |
| Scene 14. | Near Chateau Thierry, July 22, 1918 - View along the road. | (1755) 9 ft. ✓ |

Scene 15.	Carrying the dead.	(1756). 8 ft. ✓
Scene 16.	Vaux, France, July 22, 1918 - "Cleaning up" after capturing this town.	(1757) 20 ft. ✓
Scene 17.	French and American soldiers cleaning up the wreckage.	(2174) 10 ft. ✓
Scene 18.	Sergy, France, Aug. 6, 1918 - 308th Engrs., 83d Div., repairing roads that were torn up by shell fire so that heavy artillery may move forward.	(2566) 31 ft. ✓
Scene 19.	Vaux, France, July 21, 1918 - The town of Vaux from the advance position of the American troops.	(1784) 27 ft. ✓
Scene 20.	A glimpse of Chateau Thierry. 1 ft. of blank on neg. →	(1817) 7 ft. ✓
Scene 21.	A residence street in Chateau Thierry.	(1826) 16 ft. ✓
Scene 22.	Chateau Thierry, July 21, 1918 - French artillery entering, and ambulance leaving for the rear with the wounded.	(1785) 33 ft. ✓
Scene 23.	A road sign indicating the direction.	(1786) 16 ft. ✓
Scene 24.	Some of the German dead in Chateau Thierry.	(1788) 35 ft. ✓
Scene 25.	Lucy, France, July 20, 1918 - 1:30 P.M. - During the advance of the American troops the headquarters of the 26th Div. remained for about five hours.	(1772) 16 ft. ✓
Scene 26.	Chateau Thierry, France, July 21, 1918 - A bridge over the River Marne at Chateau Thierry that was destroyed June 5, 1918, by the French as the Germans were crossing.	(1780) 14 ft. ✓
Scene 27.	Destruction of a church at Lucy. The only thing left complete is the crucifix.	(1776) 10 ft.
Scene 28.	Chateau Thierry, France, July 21, 1918 - A bridge over the River Marne at Chateau Thierry that was destroyed June 5, 1918, by the French as the Germans were crossing.	(1780) 43 ft.
Scene 29.	A wrecked church at Torcy.	(1771) 12 ft.
Scene 30.	Southwest of Ville en Tardenois, July 27, 1918 - The emplacement of a big German gun reported to be a Bertha. From a powder container found near the gun the calibre of the gun is figured to be 15.2 inches.	(1919) 90 ft.
Scene 31.	The base plate of a nine-inch shell from a German long range gun which dropped in front of Hdqtrs. Troop building, of the 3d Army Corps, wounding three men.	(2175) 11 ft.

Total - reel 1

823 ft.

REEL II.

- Scene 32. A side of Chateau Thierry held by the Germans, photographed from the bridge-head at Rue Carnot. This bridge was blown up by the French. (1812)✓ 63 ft.
- Scene 33. Chateau Thierry, France, July 21, 1918 - A bridge over the River Marne at Chateau Thierry that was destroyed June 5, 1918, by the French as the Germans were crossing. (1780)✓ 24 ft.
- Scene 34. Meaux, Aisne, France, July 17, 1918 - French Red Cross nurses and American officers at a building just struck and completely demolished by the shell from a German long range gun. (2173)✓ 12 ft.
- Scene 35. Ruins of a church at Longpont, after a bombardment of the town by the Germans. (2204)✓ 5 ft.
- Scene 36. Longpont, Aisne, France, July 20, 1918 - French airplane hangers wrecked by the Germans. (2203)✓ 14 ft.
- Scene 37. Saint-Pierre-Aigle, Aisne, France, July 22, 1918 - Ruins caused by shell fire. (2192)✓ 42 ft.
- Scene 38. Fere-en-Tardenois, Aisne, France, July 30, 1918 - The spot where a French airplane bomb was dropped. (2261)✓ 28 ft.
- Scene 39. The destruction and ruin wrought by the Germans in the village of Fere-en-Tardenois. (2262)✓ 41 ft.
- Scene 40. The ruined village of Curty. (2379)✓ 23 ft.
- Scene 41. The ruined village of Coeuvres et Valsery. (2383)✓ 27 ft.
- Scene 42. Chateau Thierry, Aug. 10, 1918 - Refugees who left in haste when the Germans started to take the city are now returning and settling down in what was once their home. (2474)✓ 35 ft.
- Scene 43. Bouvardes, France, Aug. 6, 1918 - Salvage collected by regiments of the 42nd Div. after a 20 kilometer advance. (2568)✓ 35 ft.
- Scene 44. Cierges, France, August 6, 1918 - 1st Army Corps Pioneers picking material out of the salvage pile. (2466)× 8 ft.
- Scene 45. Major Drew Linard, Salvaging Officer, 1st Army Corps Pioneers, and Lieut. C. O. Stuart, aide to Major Linard. (2467)× 8 ft.
- Scene 46. Chateau de la Foret, Aisne, France, July 30, 1918 - Senator T. A. Neilsen, of Oklahoma, and Mr. Fred K. Neilsen collecting souvenirs from the battlefield. (3399)✓ 34 ft.
- Scene 47. Bois de Belleau, France, August 30, 1918 - Some French soldiers cutting wheat. (3348)✓ 29 ft.
- Scene 48. Near Essomes, on Marne, France, August 31, 1918 - Pitching Hay. (3350)✓ 32 ft.
- Scene 49. Some typical French farm workers. (3351)✓ 19 ft.
- Scene 50. American harvesting machines in a French wheat field. (3352)✓ 12 ft.
- Scene 51. Chateau Thierry, France, August 31, 1918 - French soldiers assembling American harvesting machines. (3349)✓ 28 ft.

- Scene 52. American harvesting machines in a French wheat field. (3352) 57 ft.
- Scene 53. Capt. Harraca, Director of Agricultural Service, French Army, Prof. of Botany and Translator of an American text book on Botany. He was in the trenches for two years and was gassed. (3353) 15 ft.
- Scene 54. Capt. Alex Y. Scott, American Red Cross; Charles Sheldon, N. Y. Times; Capt. Harraca; Captain Frank; Capt. de Warren placing wreaths on some American graves. (3347) 22 ft.
- Scene 55. Courboin, France, Aug. 11, 1918 - 5:15 P.M. - The Marne Valley between Toulgonne and Chateau Thierry where the 3d Div. held the line against German attacks and successfully counter-attacked. Photographed from a Salmpson airplane at an altitude of 500 meters. Pilot 1st Lieut. J. M. Murphy. (2362) 258 ft.

Total for reel 2 - 871 ft.

H-1365-118-119- "The Aisne - Maine Operations"

121-133-155-157-163-

172-174-177-188-219-

243-251-179-

July 18th Aug 6, 1918

Miscellaneous Scenes

Total Footage - 1694

RI-823 Ft

RII 871

Scene #	Code #	Footage	Scene #	Code #	Footage
1	2191	64	21	1826	16
2	2265	13	22	1785	33
3	2266	86	23	1786	16
4	2405	31	24	1788	35
5	2567	118	25	1772	16
6	1811	13	26	1780	14
7	2469	9	27	1776	10
8	2404	14	28	1780	43
9	2384	13	29	1771	12
10	2403	13	30	1919	90
11	2462	19	31	2175	11
12	2463	6		RI —	823 ft
13	2464	12	RII 32	1812	63
14	1755	9	33	1780	24
15	1756	8	34	2173	12
16	1757	20	35	2204	5
17	2174	10	36	2203	14
18	2566	31	37	2192	42
19	1784	27	38	2261	28
20	1817	7	39	2262	41
					2273

H-1365 - Continued

Scene # Code # Footage

40	2379	23
41	2383	27
42	2474	35
43	2568	35
44	2466	8
45	2467	8
46	3399	34
47	3348	29
48	3350	32
49	3351	19
50	3352	12
51	3349	28
52	3352	57
53	3353	15
54	3347	22
55	2362	258
		871 x